

Faubus Gives Legislature His Pet Bills

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus made an intense appeal today for $417,000 in appropriations for state, district and county livestock shows.

The governor devoted a major portion of a speech prepared for delivery to a joint special legislative session to the benefits of livestock shows.

He also made a strong plea for a $275,000 appropriation for a new vocational training school.

He was less enthusiastic, however, about a proposal to create a state Crimes Commission.

He said he would leave that to the judgment of the legislature. Appropriations for the livestock shows and the vocational school were defeated in the last special session, which set up a broad state construction program.

Faubus reviewed his own past as a farm boy and said the livestock shows deserved a great deal of credit for agriculture advances in recent years.

"Thousands of people each year attend the county fairs conducted throughout the state," he said. "It is safe to say that more people will attend or be active participants in the county fairs of this state than in any other activity of this nature."

The 76 county fairs are down for $142,000—$2,000 each.

Faubus said a $200,000 appropriation to rebuild the electrical system at the state Livestock Show grounds was "perhaps the most justifiable request ever considered."

Once Idol of Turkey Is Executed

By GARVEN HUDGINS

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Adnan Menderes, once the idol of Turkey, died on the gallows Sunday for crimes against the constitution in his 10 years of rule as strongman premier.

Convicted Friday by a revolutionary court after a 10-month trial, Menderes' execution was delayed after he took an overdose of sleeping pills in an attempt at suicide.

Two members of his cabinet preceded him to the gallows Saturday, former Foreign Minister Fatin Rustu Zorlu and former Finance Minister Hassan Polatkan.

The court had sentenced ex-President Celal Bayar and several other high officials to death, but their sentences were commuted to life imprisonment by the military regime that overthrew Menderes' pro-Western government in May 1960.

A communique gave no details of Menderes' hanging. It was believed to have taken place on the island prison of Imrali, where Zorlu and Polatkan were executed.

Menderes helped to organize Democratic party 15 years ago in opposition to the Republic party headed by former President Ismet Inonu.

Menderes' party swept to victory in 1960.

Willisville Woman Burns to Death

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mrs. Nannie Malone Warmack, 69, of Willisville, Nevada County, died of burns Sunday and her death boosted to 12 the number of violent deaths in Arkansas during the week which ended at midnight Sunday.

Six persons died in traffic accidents, during the week, one died in a fall, one drowned, one was shot to death, one died in the explosion of a high pressure water tank and one was killed when an earth moving machine overturned.

Neighbors said they found Mrs. Warmack, her clothes in flames, in her yard Saturday. Her clothing apparently was set on fire by a kitchen stove.

Herman W. Crouch, 39, of Benton was killed when his car struck a bridge railing on an access road of U. S. Highway 67 between Little Rock and Benton Saturday night.

Sam Martin, 64, of Ash Flat died in a Batesville clinic Saturday of injuries received in the collision of his car and a pickup truck near Ash Flat Aug. 31.

Say Planes, Sent Out Deliberately

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union says two West German fighter-bombers that strayed across East German territory to Berlin were sent deliberately. It threatened to shoot down "any violating military fighting aircraft" in the future.

A protest note Sunday was directed at the West Germans. It did not make clear whether the threat applied to U.S., British and French military planes which might wander off course from the three air corridors linking West Germany with Berlin, 110 miles inside Communist East Germany.

The Soviet note was delivered to the three Allied occupying powers and West Germany.

It said: "In similar cases in the future any violating military fighting aircraft which refused to obey the demand to land in the indicated place will be destroyed by the use of all means, including rockets."

The West German government has blamed mechanical failure for the flight of two F-104 jet fighters last Thursday that ended at Tegel Airport in the French sector of Berlin. The Bonn government apologized to the occupying powers — including the Soviet Union.

1st Baptist Break Ground for Building

The First Baptist Church broke ground yesterday on the start of the first unit of a $400,000 building program, with actual construction work expected to get underway within the next few days.

It was a historic day in the life of the 900 resident members of the church which saw these developments:

1. Unanimous adoption of plans and specifications of the building program during the morning service, after months of study and planning. This action paves the way for immediate construction.

2. Brief ground breaking ceremonies at high noon on the church property at Third and Main Sts. in which the congregation looked on as Dr. John H. McClanahan, pastor and Perry Moses, construction chairman and moderator, turned the first shovels of earth.

3. The last sermon by Dr. McClanahan, pastor for four years and three months and who is leaving this week for Blytheville where he has accepted the pastorate of First Baptist Church there.

4. Appointment of a pulpit committee to begin the search for a new pastor. This committee is composed of W. L. Tate, chairman, Hubert Thrash, Bob Herndon, Bill Gunter, Mrs. Henry Haynes, Mrs. J. O. Luck and Mrs. A. R. Trout.

5. Appointment of a pulpit supply committee is composed of Leon Davis, chairman; Ed Thrash, Fred Grey and J. S. Draper.

Construction cost of the first unit of the new Sunday School building will be $146,000. It will be a two-story brick building, air conditioned and will house 300 persons of the Sunday School department, as well as the church kitchen, dining area and music room.

Following completion of Unit A, other sections will be added, including a $95,000 chapel; a $44,000 nursery; additional educational space and offices costing $17,000.

Seabord Told to Keep Eye on Hurricane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Severe Hurricane Esther continued west-northwest in the Atlantic today and forecasters said the Atlantic seaboard should keep very close watch on future advisories.

Churning along at 12 miles per hour, the tremendous storm had winds up to 150 miles per hour over a small area near the center and hurricane force winds extended outward 170 miles to the northeast and 110 miles to the southwest.

Gales reached 350 miles to the north and east and 200 miles to the southwest of the center. Central pressure was reported as 933 millibars or 27.55 inches, indicating possible wind gusts in squalls up to 175 to 200 miles per hour.

At 5 a. m. Hurricane Esther was centered about 725 miles east of Boca Raton, Fla.; 460 miles southwest of Bermuda and 375 miles north-northeast of Turks Island in the Bahamas.

Esther was expected to move toward the west-northwest at 12 miles per hour for the next 12 hours, with no significant change in size or intensity.

"A slight turning to a more northwesterly course is indicated tonight," said forecaster Arnold Sugg of the Miami Weather Bureau.

That would lessen the danger to south Florida and if the storm continues west-northwest today, the end of the Atlantic seaboard would be in "pretty good shape" to miss it, Sugg said.

Adenauer Will Reject Any Coalition

By RICHARD O'REGAN

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, deprived by Sunday's parliamentary elections of the majority which permitted him to rule Germany with an iron hand for 12 years, rejected today any thought of coalition with the powerful Socialists.

The 85-year-old chancellor, his commanding authority now in doubt, told a news conference it is essential that his foreign policy be continued in the light of the current deep world crisis over Berlin, regardless of the structure of the new government.

Adenauer left open the question of who would be the next chancellor. But, asked whether his Christian Democrats would work in coalition with the free Democrats now holding the balance of power, the aged chancellor replied "we have worked together with the Free Democratic party before."

By RICHARD O'REGAN

BONN, Germany (AP)—Aging Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's 12-year iron fist rule over West Germany was in doubt today, after his party lost its majority in Sunday's parliamentary elections.

But West Germany, with its powerful army and its booming economy, remains firmly in the Western camp. At the most there could be some minor changes in its outlook on the crucial East-West struggle over Berlin.

Adenauer's Christian Democratic party lost 5 per cent of its popular support and about 40 seats in the new 497-man Parliament which will hold its first session Oct. 1.

A united effort to aid the Hurricane Carla victims in Texas was undertaken by the Intermediate and Senior MYF of the First Methodist Church at their meeting Sunday night. A goal of $100 was set, one tenth the amount set by the C of C for its goal.

The members of the Methodist youth organizations contributed a sizeable amount of their goal to begin the drive. Throughout Monday - Thursday these young people will be collecting additional funds from anyone who wishes to aid the many people whose homes were destroyed by the storm.

A member of the Intermediate or Senior MYF will be glad to call for a contribution you wish to make. Contact Mary Ann Bader, Gayle Medders, Jan Reinhardt, or any other member of the MYF groups.

Over Expansion of Poultry

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department report today gave further evidence of over expansion in the poultry industry—a development which has started a move to get federal controls.

Production of broiler type chicks in August was reported at 170 million, up 10 per cent from the like month last year. Production of this type chick during the January-August period this year totaled 1,533,000,000, up 11 per cent from a year earlier.

As a consequence of this expansion, broiler prices have dipped to record low levels. Some poultry leaders from the South and East are expected to call upon members of Congress this week for emergency legislation authorizing restrictions on the production under federal marketing order program.

Arkansas poultry industry leaders said last week they oppose such a program.

Russia Fires Another Nuclear Test

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Russians fired another nuclear blast today, the 13th in the current Soviet series, the Atomic Energy Commission announced.

A statement said: "The Atomic Energy Commission announced this afternoon that the Soviet Union again conducted a nuclear detonation in the atmosphere early today. The detonation was on the order of a megaton yield and occurred in the vicinity of Novaya Zemlya."

A nuclear device of one megaton yield is the equivalent of one million tons of TNT.

The new shot followed right on the heels of two other Soviet blasts over the weekend.

Meanwhile, the United States has fired the second shot of its renewed underground series.

Was on Peace Mission to Halt Africa Fighting

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ndola, Northern Rhodesia (AP)—Dag Hammarskjold died today in a plane crash.

The death of the U. N. secretary-general was reported today by Rhodesian officials and confirmed by the United Nations itself.

Hammarskjold was on a peace-making mission in a DC8B belonging to a Swedish charter company. He took off from Leopoldville, in the Congo, enroute to Ndola, in Rhodesia just across the Congolese border. The plane was reported over Ndola, then turned away.

Hours later the wreckage was found between Ndola and Mufindi, to the north.

Operators of the plane said at Leopoldville that they were investigating the possibility that the plane was shot down by a jet of the Katanga air force. Such jets have been active in the fighting between U.N. forces and the Katanga army.

Hammarskjold at the time of his death was trying to arrange a cease-fire with Moise Tshombe, head of the Katanga regime.

Hammarskjold, 56, was in the eighth year of his job as chief administrative officer of the U.N. His term was due to expire in 1963. His death raised doubt as to the future of the organization.

The Soviet Union has proposed a three-man secretariat, a move the western powers oppose because each of the three would have a veto.

The U.N. Security Council was called into session late today in New York to consider the crisis growing from Hammarskjold's death.

The United Nations office at Leopoldville said 11 bodies had been recovered at the scene of the plane crash, and one was positively identified as Hammarskjold's.

There was one survivor, U.N. officials said. They expressed belief that the plane carried 14 or 16 persons, including a crew of 3. Earlier the total complement had been reported as 10.

Rhodesian authorities said the wreckage of his plane—a DC8B shot up by Katanga rebels Friday, but subsequently repaired—was found in the bush country at the Congo-Rhodesian border. They said his body was definitely identified.

There were nine other persons aboard the plane, including five crewmen. No sign of survivors was reported here.

The plane was the object of a widespread search by U.N., British, American and Rhodesian aircraft for more than 15 hours. At midnight it checked in over the Ndola Airport for a landing and then mysteriously vanished. It had been given clearance to land, then radio contact was lost.

Was on Peace

of its kind to the U.N. executive staff since Count Folke Bernadotte, Palestine truce commissioner, was shot dead on a Jerusalem street 13 years ago—Sept. 17, 1948.

Bernadotte, like Hammarskjold, was Swedish.

The plane crashed between Ndolo and Mutulira, a copper mining and smelting center near the Kalanga frontier 40 miles northwest of Ndolo. This suggested that Hammarskjold's Swedish pilot, a captain Hallonquist, had for some reason circled back.

Reports from the scene said the plane plowed up trees in the line of its fatal descent.

Hammarskjold's plane got landing clearance at Ndolo at 12:12 a.m. (6:12 p.m. EST Sunday), then vanished.

Dense bush country around this copper mining center on Katanga's border was combed for clues to the reason. The weather was good.

U.N. headquarters in Leopoldville mobilized U.N. planes and two air cargo craft for the search. Rhodesians sent a jet Canberra and a light trainer aloft. British Royal Air Force planes were alerted to fly in from East Africa. Three long range U.S. planes helped out.

"We just don't know where he is," said Maurice Barber, director of civil aviation in the Central African Federation of which Northern Rhodesia is a part.

A control tower officer of Ndolo's big, modern airport said "We hope the missing plane landed safely somewhere." He said Hammarskjold's pilot gave no indication before radio contact was lost that he was having any trouble.

The search area covers dense forest and bushland, with large patches of swamp which dry out at this time of year. In daylight these dried swamps would make an ideal forced landing ground, airmen said, but they added that any such landing would be virtually impossible at night.

Shortly before noon Tshombe and three African advisers left Ndolo in a motor convoy heading north to the Kotanga border. Tshombe conferred here with time favor feelers toward the Communist world.

In any case, the new government will have to make quick decisions in foreign policy. Critical Western decisions have been held up by the uncertainty of the outcome of the election.

Adenauer's party will likely wind up, in the new Parliament with 241 seats, compared to 281 they held in the outgoing assembly. Preliminary official results from the complicated election procedure indicated that the Socialists would have 190 compared to 168 in the old legislature.

The Free Democrats were expected to get 66 seats, compared to 43 before.

sidered for its use and benefit by any General Assembly."

In pumping for a vocational school, Faubus told of a Pine Bluff youth who increased his salary from $65 to $125 a week after attending the vocational school at Pine Bluff.

"The continued development of a trade school program is essential if we are to train and retrain workers for our projected industrial development," he said.

Faubus said trade training is especially needed by displaced farmers and persons who lose their jobs because of automation.

He said Congress is expected to provide more money for trade training in the coming years and Arkansas should get ready to take advantage of the federal program.

Faubus said he included the Crimes Commission proposal in his special call because he was asked to do so. He did not take stand on the proposal. However, he expressed concern that discussion of the matter might prolong and complicate the session, which is expected to last only three or four days.

In discussing a proposal to create a commission to study the possibility of placing an Arkansas exhibit at the New York World's Fair in 1964-65, Faubus said the legislature would not be obligated to finance the exhibit just because it creates the commission.

British and Rhodesian officials and apparently gave up the projected meeting with Hammarskjold.

Erroneous reports Sunday said Hammarskjold had in fact arrived and met with Tshombe at the police-guarded Ndolo control tower to open cease-fire talks. But it developed hours later that the only conferees were Tshombe and British and Rhodesian officials.

The arrival of a plane from Leopoldville that was the basis for these reports, it developed, carried not the secretary general but Lord Lansdowne, British undersecretary of state for foreign affairs.

Hammarskjold's plane was the unarmed Albertina used by Lt. Gen. Sean McKeown, Irish commander of U.N. troops in the Congo. It had a crew of five and five passengers.

U. S. Fires 2nd Test, Plans 12

By W. B. RAGSDALE JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has fired the second nuclear blast of its renewed underground tests, while the Soviets pushed the total in their current series to 12 with two more blasts in the atmosphere.

U.S. space scientists also had a busy weekend.

Announcement of the two Soviet nuclear tests came after Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., predicted the Soviet Union would wind up its present series before the United Nations meets Tuesday and then offer to accept a test ban.

Humphrey, assistant Senate Democratic leader, urged in an interview that the United States beat the Soviets to the punch by offering its own proposal to halt nuclear tests at a fixed date.

The U.S. blast Saturday took place underground at the Atomic Energy Commission's test site in Nevada. It was described as a low-yield device — equivalent to the force of 20,000 tons of TNT or less — that produced no fallout.

The Soviet test Saturday was in the atmosphere at Novaya Zemlya, an island in the Arctic Ocean. The AEC said it was in the order of a megaton, equivalent to a million tons of TNT.

The Soviet blast Sunday, also in the atmosphere, took place in the vicinity of Semi-Palatinsk in central Asia. The AEC said it was of intermediate strength, defined as ranging from the equivalent of 20,000 tons of TNT to less than a megaton.

Soviet explosions have come almost daily since the Soviet Union on Sept. 1 ended the three-year moratorium on nuclear tests.

The chancellor must be elected by majority vote of the new Parliament. Before it meets Oct. 17, Adenauer's party must hold talks with one of its opponents—West Berlin Mayor Billy Brandt's Social Democrats or the Free Democrats.

Both Brandt's Socialists and the Free Democrats are against Adenauer continuing as chancellor.

They say they will refuse to enter a coalition until he retires. If they force him out, his successor may be popular Ludwig Erhard, the economics expert whose free enterprise policies have made West Germany Europe's most powerful industrial nation.

Brandt said he would like to see a three-party coalition. But Adenauer lieutenants promptly rejected such suggestions.

Political experts said a coalition between the Christian Democrats and the Free Democrats was more likely.

If the Christian Democrats and Free Democrats join in forming a new government, there could be some minor changes in foreign policy, but little change do.

The Free Democrats see West Germany as caught between East and West. They believe the country should remain bound to the Western alliance, but at the same

Crucial Meet of UN Set Wednesday

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. General assembly convenes Tuesday for what diplomats expect will be the most crucial session of its 16-year history. Some say its future as a peace-making organization is at stake. Already on its crowded list of issues to be debated are such questions as Communist China's admission, testing nuclear weapons, disarmament and the strife-torn Congo.

GM Counts on Reopening This Week

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. is counting on getting its strikebound plants back in full production by the end of this week if all goes well in contract negotiations with the United Auto Workers Union today and again Tuesday.

The union has set Wednesday as a new deadline for ending strikes which started at most of GM's 129 U.S. plants one week ago today and halted production of 1962 model cars.

The main stumbling block to a settlement has been failure of local unions and plant managers to reach agreements on working conditions.

National-level bargaining teams already have agreed upon the essentials of a wage and benefit package described as very liberal by UAW President Walter P. Reuther.

By late Sunday, settlements had been made at 75 plants where workers are represented by the UAW and at four plants represented by the International Union of Electrical Workers. This left 50 plants to go, but negotiators hoped to have most of them lined up by Wednesday.

Over the weekend Reuther called in leaders of union locals from 36 key GM plants and urged them to speed up settlements on such issues as seniority, transfers, job upgrading and shift preferences.

Reuther, when asked about prospects of a complete settlement by Wednesday replied, "things are moving." He said he could answer the question better Wednesday.

of the United States, took the initiative on the Red China issue by proposing Sunday that the General Assembly debate the question of Chinese representation.

The United States or one of its supporters is expected to seek a delay on the decision by creating a study committee in Chinese seating which would report back next year.

The United States will also support moves for priority to a debate on the need for a treaty on banning of nuclear weapons tests under effective international control.

Attempts to negotiate such a treaty at Geneva collapsed when the Soviet Union resumed testing in the atmosphere. The United States resumed testing underground, but President Kennedy made clear his country's willingness to negotiate a treaty "of the widest possible scope."

On disarmament, the United States and the Soviet Union have failed to reach agreement even on the makeup of a negotiating body. Let alone the substance of the issue. Under present East-West tensions diplomats see virtually no prospect of the United Nations getting any place with the question.

Adding to the gloomy picture is the situation in the Congo, where the fighting in Katanga has dampened hopes for uniting that country on a peaceful basis.

Other controversial issues include such perennial ones as Algeria, unification of Korea, Chinese Communist suppression of human rights in Tibet, and the racial segregation policies of South Africa.

DOROTHY DIX Husband Wants to Help His Runaway Wife

By HELEN ORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Last January I found my wife was running around with another man. She is 23; he is 36. He has been married twice before, has no job, and a bank is after his car due to nonpayment. I tried to tell her he was no good but she would not listen. After three months she came home. We have two children, 5 and 2½.

After her return she kept calling him while I was at work. She had a key made to my car and took it without telling me. Finally he told her he was married and showed her his three-months-old baby. Now my wife is pregnant and I don't know if it is my child or his.

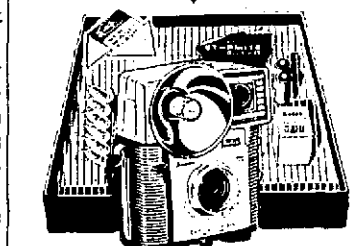

My wife says she loves me a little but not enough to burden me with her troubles. I have told her I will help her but she says she will quit home and leave me the children. My mother will make a home for them and me. Please tell me what to do. —Help Wanted.

Dear Help Wanted: Your wife is ill, unhappy, and feels unloved. You must first convince her that you want to help her, that you want your children to grow up with their mother making a home for them, and that you will (if you honestly believe you can) accept the coming baby as your own. But if you decide to do this, you really must accept it. Otherwise you may wish to offer the baby for adoption.

The little love your wife has for you can be stretched into a big one if you are kind and thoughtful. I do not condone her actions, but it is still possible for her to be a good wife and a good mother. She can become a more mature person, but you are the only one who can help her.

If you feel that you cannot solve this problem alone, see your pastor, your doctor, or the family service society in your city. Remember that the children—your

I suggest that you talk to your school principal or teachers about your idea and ask them if they will sponsor such an organization in your school. I'm sure your mother will approve when she knows more about it, and especially if the school endorses it.

Dear Helen: You told Mrs. L. to try writing a letter to her husband and slipping it under his breakfast plate. That works. My husband and I started ending spots this way four years ago and it's still working.

We found when we tried talking things out we couldn't get our true feelings in the right words. On paper it seems a lot easier.

There hasn't been much need for many of those letters, but we've kept them all, for they've become very dear love letters to us both. I hope other couples try this. —A Happy Wife

Dear Happy Wife: Thank you for writing to tell us about your success in ending spots and having love letters to keep. I'm sure this will encourage many others to adopt the same loving custom.

Send your problems to Helen Orden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "A Happy Marriage."

Police Think Hill Folks Hiding Joe

DOVER, Ark. (AP) —Do the friendly mountains still hide Joe Hilderbrand?

Law officers think so, but there has been no trace of the wily fugitive for more than a month. Then State Police searched the Hilderbrand home near here after Joe was seen in the area.

But they failed to find him. Hilderbrand eluded pursuers for more than a year before he and a girl friend, Frances L. Standridge, were captured last Oct. 12. Hilderbrand spent less than a year in custody. Early the morning of Aug. 2, he slipped out of the State Hospital at Little Rock—just one day before he was due to be sent back to state prison.

Some officers think cold weather may drive Hilderbrand back into more populated areas and thus give searchers some solid clues. The temperature has dropped into the 40s at night recently, but so far Joe hasn't turned up.

The Pope County sheriff's office says there is no concerted hunt for Hilderbrand. They are watching—and waiting.

Nicklaus Has Eye on Pro Golf Play

By JACK STEVENSON Associated Press Sports Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Champion Jack Nicklaus, blending power with finesse, provides amateur golf with someone who could beat the pros at their own game, and he wants to do it in their two biggest tournaments.

After outclassing the world's best amateurs over the exacting and treacherous Pebble Beach course to win his second United States amateur title Saturday, the 265-pound collegian declared: "I've always wanted to win the Open and the Masters."

Nicklaus, 21, who first won the Amateur championship in 1959 and currently is collegiate king representing Ohio State, beat Dudley Wysong of McKinney, Texas, 8 and 6 in the 36-hole final despite wind and rain.

Jack fired 5-under-par golf as he led from the second hole. For 136 holes in seven matches, he wound up 20 under par, Wysong ended 20 over for 143 holes.

Eddie Duino of the San Jose, Calif., Country Club, the PGA's Club Pro of the Year in 1960, compared Nicklaus favorably with professional Arnold Palmer in the days when he was winning collegiate and amateur championships. But Duino added, "This kid showed more finesse around the greens than Palmer does now."

Joe Dey, Executive Director of the U.S. Golf Association, said Nicklaus ranks as the best amateur of his day just as Bobby Jones and Lawson Little did in theirs.

The champ told newsmen he prefers medal tournaments to match play even though his big triumphs have come in the latter. "I have no intention of turning pro," Nicklaus said when asked the inevitable question.

Hall High of Little Rock in 1st Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Little Rock Hall held first place in the second Associated Press schoolboy football poll after a 28-6 victory over Hot Springs in its opening Big Nine Conference game.

Fort Smith remained the runner-up and Benton, Pine Bluff and Little Rock Central retained the next three places, just as in the first week's voting by sports-writers.

Hall got four of the five first-place votes cast, and Benton, conqueror of Little Rock Central and 39-7 victory over Stuttgart last week, received one.

Jonesboro replaced El Dorado in sixth place after a 20-0 triumph over Subiaco, the Hurricane's third straight victory.

Springdale moved up a notch to seventh after a 6-0 victory over St. Anne's, a good Class A team. Smackover and Fayetteville held ninth and 10th places respectively.

Here is the second week poll. First place votes in parentheses and total points, based on 10 for a first place vote, 9 for a second, etc., at right.

About four o'clock Geology 2

Shortly afterward a new green jeep came crawling up the trail. The driver was Frank Snoddy, who was looking for the Crech geological party. The boys sent him in the right direction and watched him take off with long, striding strides.

"He stays at Doc MacBeth's. Me and the Chief talk to him all the time," said Rockabilly.

"Never in my life!" said Mickey. "Cute hogs, though."

"You guys ain't going to dance, huh?" Mickey asked.

"Now! Boy Scouts could do a better job. Maybe we'll put on some other kind of show. You got any ideas?"

"Burn a wagon train." "Us Utes never got a good crack at any wagon trains."

OUR ANCESTORS by Quincy

Chapter XXV

Miss Cowgill was well taken with her two sprightly jeep drivers. At first, she had been doubtful about having young men in such close association with her students because, while she knew very little about teen-age lads, she did know a great deal about her girls.

But Mickey and Rockabilly Boy had turned out well. They were excellent drivers, although with a tendency to be fearless.

Best of all, they were scared to death of girls.

This was a virtue that both amazed and relieved Miss Cowgill. Her idea of a teen-age boy had been something akin to an Abominable Snowman with the instincts of a male lobster. The first day out, Mickey and Rockabilly had tried hard to be assured, flippant, and worldlywise, but Miss Cowgill's charges had pierced that sham with terrible accuracy.

That evening she had a little chat with her charmers.

"We do not make the ears of teen-age boys burn with our oblique references to sex."

"I wasn't oblique," Stephanie protested. "I was about as direct as—"

"Quite so Stephanie. In the future we will conduct our conversations with the drivers on a higher level. We all understand that, don't we?"

"Not even one weensie, sly little reference?" Connie Myers asked wistfully.

"None! And now, our notes..."

On this day, high in the hills, which were actually far little mountains, Miss Cowgill borrowed Mickey's frying pan to demonstrate the expanding qualities of vermiculite when heated.

Mickey was not impressed. It was time to eat and he needed the frying pan to cook two pounds of hamburger for himself and Rockabilly. Girls might get along on a box lunch but the drivers had noted the inadequacy of such provender after one try. They had supplied themselves with soup, er items.

"Umm!" said Linda, sniffing the odor of the soup. "Could I have just a weensie bit of that?"

"Yeah, I guess," Mickey grunted gallantly.

Linda dipped. Terry Holcomb dipped. Then Connie and Beth and others gathered round with their outsized paper cups, and their weensie attacks reduced the soup to a pot with a residue of tomato stain.

The drivers cooked the hamburger. It gave off delicious odors, which all the girls were quick to note. When forced politely, the boys had to be gentlemen. Hungry gentlemen. Rockabilly did manage to swipe out a few bits with the last bun.

Maris Has 3 Games to Tie Ruth's Record

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roger Maris has 58 home runs and needs only two more in three decisions to tie Babe Ruth's all-time record of 60 set in 1927.

Maris slammed No. 58 Sunday with Tony Kubek on base in the 12th inning at Detroit for a 6-4 New York Yankee victory over the Tigers. The Yanks, leading by 10½ games, can clinch the American League pennant with any combination of victories or Detroit defeats adding up to two.

As commissioner Ford Frick has decreed that Ruth's record must be tied or broken within 154 decisions—a tie game is not a decision and both the 1961 Yanks and the 1927 Yanks played one tie—time runs out on Maris in Baltimore Wednesday night.

The Yanks now have played 151 decisions (152 games) and will have completed 154 by Wednesday night, barring interference by the weather man. Of course, they are playing a 162-game schedule this season, and have plenty of time to put over the clincher.

Maris had two extra chances when the game went into extra innings. He walked twice and struck out once before he tripled in the seventh, a blow that missed being a homer by a foot. After Moose Skowron's wild throw helped Detroit tie the score in the eighth, Maris tied it in the 10th and then hit the 400 foot homer on a 2-1 pitch by relief man Terry Fox.

Bill Monbouquette of Boston held Baltimore to three singles and won 1-0 on Jim Pagliaroni's double in the fourth. Lew Krausse, Kansas City's $125,000 rookie, won his first game since June 16 with a five-hitter against Washington 3-2.

Minnesota took a pair from Cleveland 5-0 and 5-3 on Camilo Pascual's seventh shutout and the combined pitching of Al Schroll and Ray Moore. Joe Altobelli, who homered off Jim Perry, drove in three runs in the opener and one in the second.

Chicago swept two from the Los Angeles Angels 8-1 and 4-3 in 10 innings. Al Smith's grand slammer and Frank Baumann's five-hitter won the opener. Billy Goodman's pinch single broke up the second.

In the National League, Philadelphia knocked off Cincinnati 4-0, a three-hitter by Art Mahaffey and Frank Sullivan. Los Angeles 8-2 with Felipe Alou getting four hits and Larry Jackson of St. Louis lead to 3½ games by beat-

Picture Has Changed in Pro Football

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Something has gone awry. The Cleveland Browns are the unanimous choice to win the National Football League's Eastern Conference crown. The defending champion Philadelphia Eagles are dead without their great quarterback Norm Van Brocklin. So are the St. Louis Cardinals without their great running duo of John David Crow and Joe Childress, and with quarterback Sam Elcheverry's sore arm. The Minnesota Vikings probably won't win a game and the Dallas Cowboys may be lucky to get just one.

That was the word as late as noon Sunday before the league opened its 42nd season. Today, the tune has changed.

The Philadelphia Eagles, with Van Brocklin now coaching the new Minnesota entry, broke Cleveland's bubble the first time out 27-20. The Cards found that even with a half an arm and a couple of adequate runners in Frank Mestnik and Mal Hammark, they had enough to upset the New York Giants 21-10.

The Vikings made the Chicago Bears look like the new team with a 37-13 victory in their first start, while sophomore Dallas won its first game in 14 tries in the NFL, 27-24 over Pittsburgh.

In still another mild surprise, the Detroit Lions upended Green Bay's defending Western Conference champs 17-13, while Baltimore had to scrape to down Los Angeles 27-24 and San Francisco rolled over Washington 35-3.

The Eagles applied the crusher ing Milwaukee 4-3 in-chhst. a A San Francisco thumped Chicago 8-2 with Felipe Alou getting four hits and Larry Jackson of St. Louis shut out Pittsburgh 3-0.

John Brodie threw four touchdown passes for San Francisco, two going to Monte Stickles and another to J. D. Smith, who also scored on a plunge. John Aven's 29-yard field goal got the only Redskins points.

Early on the Browns, springing Tim Brown on a 105-yard touchdown run with the opening kickoff. Sonny Jurgensen, Van Brocklin's successor, then tossed TD passes of 18 and six yards to Bobby Walston and Tom McDougal, respectively, the former putting Philly ahead to stay in the second period.

Elcheverry, whose arm had little to do with his masterful play calling and deceptiveness, threw a five-yard TD loss to Mestnik after Hammark gave the Cards a 14-10 lead with a 28-yard TD run. Giants' rookie Larry Hayes' block of a kick and its recovery in the end zone got the New York-ers' only TD.

Rookie quarterback Fran Tarkenton, taking over for veteran George Shaw, fired four touchdown passes and scored another as the Vikings began their NFL career before 32,236 home fans.

Rookie placekicker Allen Green, obtained in a three-way trade with Washington and New York, kicked a 27 yard game winning field goal in the final second after Eddie LeBaron, in the final two minutes, guided the Cowboys on a 75-yard TD drive.

Nick Pietrosante scored both Detroit touchdowns after punts by Yale Lary had set the Packers deep in their own territory. The second was on an 11-yard pass from Earl Morrall. Jim Taylor scored the Packer touchdown in the first four minutes.

The Colts put the lid on Rams' quarterback Zeke Bratkowski, who helped his team score touchdowns four out of the first five times Los Angeles had the ball in the first half. Steve Myhra's two field goals, the last a 39-yarder that broke a 24-24 tie in the final period, proved to be the difference.

John Brodie threw four touch-

down passes for San Francisco, two going to Monte Stickles and another to J. D. Smith, who also scored on a plunge. John Aven's 29-yard field goal got the only Redskins points.

Snider, Hodges Keep Life in Dodger Hopes

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Duke Snider and Gil Hodges, a couple of holdovers from the Dodgers' old salad days, are breathing new life into the National League race.

Snider's ninth-inning single enabled Los Angeles to tie the score against Milwaukee and his 11th inning single won the game 4-3 after Hodges, playing his 2,000th major league game, beat out a single and all hands were safe when relief pitcher Don McMahon muffed Bob Aspromonte's high bouncer for an error. Hodges beat out a bunt and Snider broke it up with a bouncing single down the right field line.

Art Mahaffey of the Phils struck out nine and shut out the Reds for eight innings. In the top of the ninth he was hit on the head by a ball thrown by Eddie Kasko as he moved from first to second and was carried off the field. Frank Sullivan preserved the shutout.

Philadelphia scored three in the third off Bob Purkey, two coming on a triple by Tony Gonzalez that Jerry Lynch misjudged in left field.

Musial's homer at Pittsburgh came with Ken Boyer on base in four singles in the attack on loser the sixth. Curt Flood collected Al McBean and his successors.

The Dodgers' victory, coupled with Cincinnati's 4-0 defeat at the hands of their Philadelphia cousins, cut the Reds' lead to 3½ games. Los Angeles is only two back in the all important loss column. It was the Phils' third victory over the Reds in 22 games.

Stan Musial celebrated his 20th anniversary in the major leagues, all with St. Louis, by hitting his 14th home run while Larry Jackson shut out Pittsburgh 3-0 with five hits.

Felipe Alou went on a tear against Chicago with four hits, including his 18th homer and four runs batted in, as San Francisco rolled to an 8-2 decision over the Cubs.

In the American League, Roger Maris hit his 58th home run, only two short of Babe Ruth's record of 60, as New York trimmed Detroit 6-4 in 12 innings. The Yanks needed only two more victories or Detroit defeats to clinch the pennant. Boston blanked Baltimore 1-0 and Kansas City edged Washington 3-2. Minnesota took two from Cleveland 5-0 and 5-3 and Chicago swept a pair from Los Angeles 8-1 and 4-3 in 10 innings.

Milwaukee rode along with a 2-0 lead behind Carl Willey going to the eighth when the Dodgers got their first run on Willey's wild pitch with the bases loaded. Norm Larker's double and Snider's single tied it in the ninth. Norm Sherry opened the 11th with a
